Good Evening,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to this performance of South Pacific, another of Rodgers and Hammerstein's greats that is timely now as when it opened at the Majestic Theatre, New York in 1949.

In addition to expressing our appreciation to our Special Members and to you, our audience, for your continued support, we would like to extend a hearty THANKS to the staff and cast of South Pacific. After rehearsals began, our director learned he would be leaving town before the production was ready. Bob Lauterborn and Carman Sgarlata came to our rescue and shared the responsibilities of directing. It is difficult to finish a show somebody else started, and our staff and cast met the difficulties with cheerfulness and cooperation.

You will notice many new faces on stage and new names in the program. We are always delighted to have new people to share the excitement and fun of putting a show together. If you would like to join us, give us a call. The Schenectady Light Opera Company number is in the telephone book.

We hope tonight will be an "Enchanted Evening" for you.

Sincerely,

Fran Mac Millan

A WORD ON COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS

So many people and businesses give freely of their time and services to the Schenectady Light Opera Company that it is impossible to establish rational criteria for distributing complimentary tickets as an expression of appreciation.

Most people wouldn't take them if offered since the real reward for their efforts is the continued existence of the Company.

This is the basis for SLOC's "no complimentary ticket" policy.

About the Show

South Pacific, winner of the coveted Pulitzer Prize and countless other honors, is one of the true classics of American musical theatre.

Though in a World War 2 setting, the play is less concerned with our struggle with the enemy than with the internal conflict of two young Americans who are forced to test their own deep-rooted prejudices. This hardly sounds like a suitable theme for a musical comedy, but around it Rodgers and Hammerstein have built a play that abounds with color, humor, and music, and has maintained its freshness for almost twenty years.

Who's Who in the Cast

CAROL ANSELMO (Nellie Forbush) — appears in her second major role with SLOC having played Jennifer in last years Paint Your Wagon. Carol has danced in all productions since Guys and Dolls. She has also been seen in The Women at the Civic Playhouse, Sgarlata's Musical Comedy Players and danced in the chorus of Musicals Under The Stars.

ERNEST ANDREW MILLS (Emile) — has appeared in many roles for SLOC from Don Pedro in La Perichole to Steve in Paint Your Wagon and has served on various committes. He has also done the poster designs for Mikado, King and I, and Paint Your Wagon. At the present time Drew is on the SLOC Board of Directors and is soloist for the Mendelssohn Club of Albany. Drew is a graduate of Syracuse University and is an Associate Supervisor of Art Education for the New York State Education Department.

ALLAN FOSTER (Lt. Cable)—has performed many principal roles in SLOC with some of the more recent being Mikado, Where's Charley, Amelia Goes To The Ball, and Kiss Me Kate. He has appeared with the Galaxy Players and Triune Players. Allan also served as President of the SLOC Board. A graduate of Yale, he is supervising metallurgical engineer with General Electric.

CARMEN SGARLATA (Billis)—has appeared in many productions including Oklahoma, Music Man, and Guys and Dolls which he also directed. Carmen has often been seen at the Civic Playhouse—most recently in The Fantasticks and You Can't Take It With You. He is on the SLOC Board for the third year and is a Past President.

JUDITH LAMPILA (Bloody Mary) — makes her initial appearance in a SLOC production. She has appeared in The Mikado for the Triune of Latham and in Variety shows in Pittsburg, Pa. Judy is a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College and is an auditor for New York State.

TOBY TYLER (Capt. Brackett) — is a newcomer to this area. A recent Amherst College graduate, Toby appeared in school productions of Twelfth Night, My Three Angels, and Romanoff and Juliet.

MARY A. HANNON (Liat) — is making her first appearance with SLOC. She has performed in college productions and with the Galaxy Players. Mary graduated from Marymount College and is employed by the Department of Social Service for Schenectady County.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Two Classical Vocal Scholarships of $200 and $100 are offered by the Schenectady Light Opera for classical vocal study each year. Public auditions are held with qualified judges who are residents of the area. Judging is based on vocal ability and poise. This years awards were presented to Miss Elaine Sykes and Mr. Eric Willette. Miss Kathy Filosi and Mr. Willie Drake received honorable mention.

Who's Who in Production

MARION FOSTER (Producer) — has been consistently active in SLOC affairs for many years. She has appeared in choruses from La Perichole to My Fair Lady and has worked on most production committees. Marion has also appeared with the Civic Playhouse and was Assistant Director for the Galaxie Players' Brecht on Brecht.

FRANK CARR (Director) — has appeared in practically every Gilbert and Sullivan role from John Wellington Wells to the Duke of Plaza Toro. His own Gilbert and Sullivan company gained national attention with their production of Pinafore aboard a steamboat on the Ohio River. A graduate of Princeton and Yale Drama School, he has performed professionally in academic and community theatre. Unfortunately for us, since starting this production, Frank has moved to Cleveland.

ROBERT LAUTERBORN (Director) — is a newcomer to SLOC, but is not new to the theatre. Bob has appeared in Visit To A Small Planet and All The Way Home, was Asst. Director to The Private Ear and Public Eye, The Fanaticsticks, and directed Two For The Seesaw at the Civic Playhouse. He also directed the General Electric living stage show at the Seattle World's Fair. Bob is Associate Editor of The General Electric Forum.

CARMEN SGARLATA (Associate Director) — has appeared in and directed many area productions, not only for SLOC, but the Civic Playhouse as well. More recent achievements include Director of Can Can and playing Nathan Detroit and directing Guys and Dolls. He is a Claims Representative with the Hartford Insurance Company.

MARILYN RAMSEY (Choreographer—Assistant Director) — has choreographed many productions for SLOC among which were Naughty Marietta and Carousel and appeared in The King and I and Oklahoma. Among local activities she has been artistic director of the Schenectady Civic Ballet for four years, choreographer for Musicals Under The Stars, and educational TV programs. Marilyn is Secretary-Treasurer of the Northeast Regional Ballet Festival Association and presented original balletic creations at these festivals for three years.

DON BUSH (Musical Director) — has often appeared with the SLOC orchestra and is Publicity Chairman for the second time. He has played percussions with the Boston Pops Tour Orchestra and the Pittsburg Symphony. He also conducted and co-produced Guys and Dolls and Kiss Me Kate with Musicals Under the Stars. Don is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music.

SKIP JOHNSTON (Production Manager) — has appeared in the chorus of My Fair Lady and Paint Your Wagon, and in college productions. He graduated from State University at Geneseo with a degree in speech and drama. Skip teaches speech at Niskayuna High School.

BOB ANSELMO (Stage Manager) — has danced in the last two SLOC productions. This is his first major Production assignment. Bob is an electronics engineer with the General Electric Research and Development Center.

GINNIE MILLS (Set Designer)—has appeared in the choruses of Oklahoma and Music Man. She designed the posters for The King and I and Mikado. Ginnie has worked on various production committees. A graduate of Syracuse University College of Fine Arts, she is an art teacher at Birchwood School.

TED RAUTENBERG (Sound Technician) — has contributed his technical ability to fifteen consecutive SLOC productions and is also responsible for the establishment of the company sound system. He is also a member of the Schenectady Symphony Orchestra and has appeared with the SLOC orchestra. Ted is a graduate of Amherst College and is a physicist at the General Electric Research Laboratory.

BUD MUTH, JR. (Lighting Designer) — is a newcomer to Schenectady. Bud was associated with the Daytona Beach Little Theatre in the capacity of publicity, membership and lighting. He is a graduate of the University of Maryland and is a Technical Information Analyst for General Electric.

MARY JANE SALAMONE (Properties Mistress) — is undertaking her first assignment with SLOC. A graduate of Oneonta, she worked on many college productions, in one, playing Helen of Troy in Trojan Women. She is a teacher at Colonie Village School.

KATHY JOHNSTON (Costume Mistress) — undertakes her first chairmanship for a SLOC production, though has worked costume committee before. A graduate of State University at Geneseo, she has done graduate work at Syracuse University and SUC of Albany.

MARIANNE HOLMES (Make-up Artist) — has worked on make-up committees for many SLOC productions and for the Civic Playhouse. Marianne is a Dental Technician.

LINDA SENN (Co-Chairman, Tickets) — has served on the ticket committee for SLOC's last ten productions. She is a graduate of St. Luke's Hospital in New York. Linda is very active in church and community projects. She made an appearance as a child in an original Civic Players production.

HELEN KELLY (Co-Chairman, Tickets) — has been on the ticket committee for the last eleven shows. She was Vice-President of Community Operations for SLOC for two years. Helen is a teacher at Lincoln Elementary School in Scotia.
