

THE PROUD TRADITION:

Schenectady looks to the next 100 years.

Companies don't make progress. People do.

The people at Schenectady General Electric—key contributors to their company's 100 years of progress—have built more than half of America's total capacity to generate electric power. Fulfilling the vision of an electrically powered society by their Schenectady GE forefathers—Thomas A. Edison and Charles P. Steinmetz—has taken a rare combination of creativity, skill and dedication.

Today, Schenectady GE people continue to apply their talents to the electrical needs of tomorrow. We furnish not only the capacity to generate power, but also many of the electrical equipments and services that keep America growing and prosperous. And in our seven labs and research centers, we seek new ways to use electric power even more efficiently and effectively.

At Schenectady General Electric, many thousands of people are dedicated to making the next 100 years even more productive for an electrically powered America.

CANDIDE

Music by:

LEONARD BERNSTEIN

Book Adapted from Voltaire by:

HUGH WHEELER

Lyrics by:

RICHARD WILBUR

With additional Lyrics by STEPHEN SONDHEIM and JOHN LATOUCHE in conjunction with HAROLD PRINCE and RUTH MITCHELL
BROADWAY PRODUCTION Conceived and Directed by HAROLD PRINCE
CANDIDE is presented through special arrangement with MUSIC THEATRE INTERNATIONAL
119 West 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019

ABOUT CANDIDE

The original book, written over 250 years ago, reflected the prejudices and attitudes of the time, many of which, unfortunately, exist today.

"Very loosely, it is the story of two young people in love. They are Candide, an innocent who remains an innocent, and Cunegonde, who also remains an innocent but starts out life raped by a regiment of Bulgarian foot soldiers and finds herself with a slightly variant view of chastity.

"Dominating this Voltaire-style view of life is Dr. Pangloss, who believes, of course, 'that we live in the best of all possible worlds,' and that everything turns out for the best—especially disaster. And disasters abound. The characters of this play have the worst of times—they are raped, flogged, shipwrecked, hanged, killed, and one of them—most memorably—loses her left buttock. Voltaire's world was not an easy one."

Clive Barnes

New York Times, 3/13/74

CANDIDE Dedicated to STEVE RALBOVSKY

The death of Steve Ralbovsky on February 3 stunned and saddened his many SLOC friends. Steve was an extraordinary actor. His unforgettable debut . . . just four years ago . . . as Don Quixote in Man of La Mancha, drew "Bravos!" from audiences and critics. Sensitive, shining performances followed in Carnival, A Little Night Music, and last April in Shenandoah.

In other local productions Steve was always outstanding . . . such shows as Sleuth, Plaza Suite, Camelot, Follies, and The Shadow box among others.

One thing is clear; the area has lost a fine talent. Onstage or off, many persons . . . fellow players, crew, friends, loved ones . . . will be missing him for a long time to come.
